EDITORIAL NOTES.

Sixty men, under Lieutenant-Governor Adams, are scouting the country between Three Forks and Duck valley. The reservation Indians at Duck valley are getting very restless, and an outbreak is feared.—Silver State.

The spectacle of Jewett Adams, with his side-board whiskers, and he filled with thoughts of his lately wedded and loving wife in Carson; he, J. Adams, actually roaming over hot sage-brush deserts after the wily savage, is enough to arouse the patriotic valor of every man in this State, and produce such an uprising among the whites for the punishment of the naughty Bannocks that not another mother's son of them will ever produce another hostile ruse. But such is war. Let us drop the curtain with the vile fear haunting us like a ghastly dream. Suppose Jewett should lose his side-whiskers, or get his best pants torn.

The Eureka Republican is surprised that one of the milkmen of Eureka should back his milk wagon into a water ditch, and writes of the "accident" as a serious affair saying that, "While Mr. Taylor, a milk dealer, was driving down Spring street this morning, his horse took fright and backed into the big ditch, carrying with him wagon and driver." The confidence which the local of the Republican has in the above milk distributor is indeed remarkable. Does he get his milk free or is he an incorrigible joker?

The Elko Independent thus irreverently concludes an article on General Howard's prayer meeting for the softening of the hearts of the shiftless Bannocks:

"As for any influence which prayer meetings on either side may have on the God of battles, if the justice of the cause is taken into consideration it is to be presumed that He will be on the side of the Bannocks. General Howard's supplications to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sears gives way too much to his feelings. We fear Elko is not the best place to propagate vital godliness.

The cashier of the treasury department of the Carson mint has been presented with an American eagle by Mr. Alex. Leport, a resident of the capital. The Carson Appeal complains that the bird has been dead for one year and, therefore, could not keep a faithful watch over the coin boxes. Mighels is too practical. There is not much Fourth of July poetry and speech-presentation stuff about him.

The Carson Tribune says that the only person in "Washoe valley or Truckee meadows, that endorses the course of the Gazette, relative to the county inquisition, is a stalwart rancher." The good Deacon does say such harmless things occasionally that we love to quote them. His opinions are so logical and so reliable that it is a pleasure to our citizens to read his prattle.

Austin will celebrate the glorious fourth, and to the end that the affair may prove a success, the solid business will be celebrated by a burlesque celebration by the Austin hoodlums. The Reveille says that over eighty men have been enrolled and the necessary committees appointed. Fred Hart, we presume, will be President of the band.

The Footlight is guilty of asking the following question:

Have the times improved any? The spectacle is still presented of men going from one saloon to another anxiously looking for work.

The innocent sarcasm of Dick Rule would astonish the angelic temper of the mild-mannered Deacon of the Carson Tribune.

The German courts have decided that a railroad company is liable for damages for frightening a person to death. The question arose from a case where a woman died from fright occasioned by a railroad accident near her home. The cars ran off the track into her back yard, and she thought the house was falling down. After her death the company was sued for $10,000 damages. The courts—the case being appealed from one to another up to the superior commercial court—all decided that the railroad company was liable for the woman's death, the same as if the cars had run over her.

Kearney has carried San Francisco and the State of California. The metropolitan journals, or a majority of the number, hail him with sarcasm as King, but Kearney does not seem to mind it much. In the Gazette some weeks ago appeared a San Francisco letter which described Kearney's position exactly. He then had control of the city, and he now controls the constitutional convention. Politicians should learn that great force may come out of simple causes. That to abuse an opponent is not to defeat him.

Mrs. Mary A. Jenks is the last novelty secured for exhibition before the Potter committee. That body has collected and displayed in the interests of Democracy some very choice specimens of the genus perjurer, and Mrs. Jenks is a fine sample of the cheek which is raised in Louisiana. The Potter committee can justly pride itself on being the most unfortunate lot of conspirators ever assembled. Their position at present resembles that of a rattlesnake whose fangs have been drawn.

The editor of the Truckee Republican, says:

Deer, grouse and quail are plentiful in the mountains at present.

We presume that he speaks from reports. These days are too warm for Ford to test the truth of the above item.

Wells Drury, the good-looking reporter of the Gold Hill News, calls Parkinson of the Tribune "Judge Parkinson." We thought Wells was on good terms with the Deacon.

Mrs. Bowers says she saw a man at the bottom of an old deserted shaft with his head all caved in. She also affirms that the murderer is walking the streets. Mrs. B., however, does not indicate the shaft or ask a reward for the murderer, so the matter hangs fire. There is nothing remarkable about Mrs. Bowers seeing a man in a shaft. Some women see a man every place. It is remarkable, however, that the sayings and doings of this silly old lady are not kept within her own family circle.

The Eureka Sentinel says, in reply to a Tribune growl at the White Pine war claims, "There is hardly a business man in Carson who has not wrung from the Treasury, through the medium of fraudulent relief bills, more than the whole cost of our bloody war." Parkie very seldom learns the iniquity of a bill until it becomes a law.

Frank Kenyon, on account of his ill health, wants to sell his three newspapers—the Lyon county Times, Bodie Standard and Esmeralda Herald. Here is a good chance for the outside smarties who think they can run newspapers better than any of the ordinary scrub editors.—Reveille.

The Times-Review pronounces unequivocally for A. M. Hillhouse for United States Senator. A. M. Hillhouse will go down to Tuscarora and requite Mr. Dennis after his defeat.

Last week a very destructive rain storm visited southwestern Kansas and destroyed much property.

William Cullen Bryant, was worth $350,000 at his death. This property, except four acres of land and $8,200, is equally divided between his two daughters. G. B. Cline, the overseer of his estate, has the four acres of land and $8,000. Cline's son is to have $200.

It is reported that Congressman Acklin of Louisiana will shortly fight a duel with Gen Rosser.

The sensational letter of Wilkes Booth to Lincoln, promises to be merely a sensational report.

A JUDICIAL JOB.

A private letter from a prominent Republican in Ormsby county reveals another kind of argument, and another phase of the rule or ruin policy. Our informant states that Judge Wright is now attempting to overthrow the decision of the Republican State Central Committee in regard to the apportionment of delegates. The method is a new one, and accords with precedent as nearly as some of the Judge's legal decisions. He boasts of controlling absolutely the counties of Ormsby and Douglas in the judicial fight, but fears that he cannot boss the cow county with its keenest ranchers. This would be third term, therefore seeks to reverse the decision of the party's executive body for this State, through the County Central Committee of these three counties Douglas and Ormsby he claims to control; he will therefore ask Washoe to give up her apportionment and take a less number to the judicial convention. Claiming Douglas and Ormsby at the top of his voice, a reduction of Washoe's apportionment would give Mr. Wright a dead thing. As it now stands he has, according to his own computation exactly an even show. He probably recognizes the fact that almost any Republican will beat him with the chances even, and hence he has studied up this novel plan for settling matters. No thought is taken of the probability that such action would array many Republicans of this county against the ticket; that is a secondary consideration with Mr. Wright. He don't want to go before the people if he can help it. Star chamber proceedings and committee action is what he craves.

As before stated, the present apportionment gives Mr. Wright an even chance for the nomination. The change which he is attempting will, he thinks, give him a sure thing by ignoring Washoe county. The scheme mentioned is, of course, impossible of accomplishment and the people should determine why this judicial aspirant is afraid to come before them with an even chance. The apportionment given us is in accord with our importance as a county and our interest in the judicial business of the district. It cannot be stolen or given away, and Mr. Wright ought to know that to attempt such a barefaced job is merely to make his defeat more certain than it is to-day. Our correspondent suggests that the scheme originated in the ponderous brain of Deacon Parkinson. It is sufficiently shallow and impracticable to claim such an author, but considering Judge Wright's action eight years ago, when he turned Democrat because Judge Harris beat him in convention, we will award this invention to Mr. Wright. A few more brilliant stratagems like this, and the corporal's guard, which now follows Mr. Wright in Washoe, will become disgusted and disband.

Shoshones Going North.

Saturday morning twenty-five well-armed Indians crossed the railroad track near Argenta going north. Constant reports come in from the line of the Eureka and Palisade railroad of small parties of Indians passing north, nearly all such being armed.

A NEW PHASE OF COMMUNISM.

The New York Times' Cincinnati correspondent says:

The farmers in all parts of Ohio are receiving almost daily notices signed "The Workmen's Bread or Blood Committee," and warning them against buying labor-saving machinery and especially self-binding reapers. Threats are made that every such reaper will be destroyed and the stacks of grain burned if an attempt is made to use them. No cases of violence however, have yet been repeated.

It would thus appear that the leaven of social labor disorder is in operation in this country, that a few years hence news similar to the agrarian disturbances of ancient Rome will yet require forcible suppression in the United States. Already have we had the railroad riots of last year, the Kearney sparks in San Francisco, and now comes a distinctive expression of the same ultra spirit in Ohio. Are the times out of joint, that these social disturbances must arise? Has capital made itself tyrannous and official corruption created a stench in the people's nostrils? Has labor little demand and the laborer become worse? In a word, is the present state of affairs warranted by every circumstance. For the country to be purged by an invasion of poverty and ignorance, and this rabble mostly a foreign element would be more disastrous than beneficial. There are times when honest men must come to the front and grasp firmly the reins of government. The United States is a young country and her vast resources are yet but comparatively undeveloped. Her population is not large, and her government the most liberal in the world. The framers of the constitution were too liberal in their provisions for all classes, forgetting that foreigners could not comprehend, appreciate and assume the spirit of our institutions in the time provided under our laws. But subsequent Congresses have not improved matters in some respects have plunged our country into deeper and more far reaching complications. A war would be a resultant detriment, as the class which might suffer without general loss to the country would chiefly remain at home, and our stronger and better and braver men would have the fighting principally to do. One great difficulty lies in the positive dishonesty and selfishness of the people of this country. We speak of a lack of confidence in business circles, and why should this be and what is the result? The spirit of making all we can out of each other, without special regard to the means we employ, must bear fruit, and if the indications of the times are properly interpreted by us, the people will soon gather some of the fruitage.

INDIANS AGAINST INDIANS.

Natchez, who is still recognized as principal leader of the Putes, notwithstanding his resignation of Chieftanship, has determined to take the field against the hostiles. He has sent messengers to the Putes and Shoshones, north and south of the railroad, to assemble in council for the purpose of declaring war against the hostiles. If both tribes agree to go to war they can put four or five hundred warriors in the field. Natchez says he has ordered all the Pute tribe out and will get all he can of them to take the war-path.—Silver State.

From the earliest history of our country Indians have been used by the white man to fight each other. But for Donald McKay and his band of Warm Springs Indians the Modocs would not have been as easily dislodged, and that expensive war against the Pitt River and Modoc Indians as soon, or as effectually terminated. After a long peace Indians as well as white men like a war, and it is not so material a point against who or how we fight if we only can shed some blood. The Indian very naturally is more clamorous for bloodshed than are more civilized races. The different tribes have more or less ill will toward each other. Petty jealousies, trivial bickerings, all of which engender a species of hatred which is more or less dormant and yet can be easily aroused, and if skillfully managed may be of an immense advantage at a time like the present. Jackson, Wayne, Standish, Crook, all Indian fighters, use Indians to fight Indians. Not deserters or those who in any way have reason to make common cause with the hostile savage, but those of a different tribe—those who have been misused by the red enemy. Of course this Indian force must be watched and always be less than the white force. They must be kept in subjection, but not placed under what would seem to them severe discipline. Feed them well, enlist their sympathies, not with lying promises, but with actual yet small favors, and they will prove trusty allies and valuable scouts. You then know if an Indian kills another Indian, or both kill each other, that no particular harm will result, as reasoned by war logic. There is no special virtue in a high code of morals in war, and particularly with savages. You cast your pearls before swine in so doing. Get the enemy divided and class fighting against class, then the conflict may rage, and the longer the better. The results will then be permanent, and yourself the least injured. As Brick Pomeroy says, "Strategy, my boy, is everything." We want in this little Indian squabble less prayer-meetings and more strategy and fighting. And a main feature of success lies in fighting Indians with Indians. Fight the devil with his own fire.

FAT METHOD OF FIGHTING INDIANS.

The news from the seat of war indicates that the Bannocks are having lots of fun. Their scouts mount a high hill or a friendly mountain top and sitting under some splendid shade watch a small force of infantry marching in the hot sunshine to the tune of "Hail Columbia." "The Girl I Left Behind Me," etc. And then some sleek buck laughs with his fellows that this is the Enterprise's marching infantry, which its editor deems will be of such valuable service in dislodging the red-skins from the lava beds, which lava beds are distant from these Indians several hundreds of miles. It might be just as well for our troops to ride horseback and travel with trusty scouts during the night and camp in some hidden place during the days. The Indians might then not know all the time where the soldiers are. However, if the object is to spend the government's money and consume months of time in a vain warfare against a few disaffected Bannocks, the present course should by all means be continued.

From the tone of the dispatches, this Indian war is greatly exaggerated. Reports and rumors gain currency which are not founded on fact. While many of the officers in command are very fair gentlemen, no doubt, yet they are inexperienced in Indian warfare and do not possess the qualifications for commanders in such a campaign as the present. Of course these things are easy to say, but are they not reasonable and true? We have good Indian fighters, and such only should conduct a war against the red-skins.

Dr. Todd and his wife, of Bethany, Pennsylvania, were separated by divorce. The decree awarded the custody of their little boy to the mother, and she took him to her new home in Iowa. The doctor kidnapped the boy and carried him back to Bethany. The mother followed, got possession of the child again and started off with him. The fugitives were found hiding in a haystack, which the pursuers surrounded. Then Mrs. Todd emerged, leading the boy with one hand and holding a cocked revolver in the other. She was not molested.

The Carson brass band will furnish music on the Fourth of July for the Bodie folks.

RETURNED BRAVES.

The gallant fifteen Humboldters who, like minute men of old, organized in an hour and marched immediately to the scene of danger and impending conflict, have, after two weeks' rambling among the mountains and valleys of the sparsely-settled Indian war country, returned to their homes and friends in Winnemucca. These heroes of not a single conflict—no discredit for that, however—were welcomed with joy and honor, like the heroes of Balaklava. The band played several popular army airs, and W. H. Howard gave them a stirring speech of welcome. They told in a general way their hardships, and of the devastation which they observed; but mingling among friends, the thread of narration was too often broken by common interruption, and the shades of nightfall and the smaller circle of home or another re-enacted the scenes of campfire and mountain ride, of long, tedious routes and sought and then avoided dangers. The inspiration of the "Ancient Mariner," or the warlike tales of some Othello to his thus won Desdemona served to beguile the hours of evening and even steal many fair minutes of the waning night. The Silver State says that they gave the following condensed information:

They proceeded north to McDermitt, thence across the Oregon line to White Horse, where a number of settlers were fortified. From White Horse, scouting and foraging parties were sent out in the direction of Stein mountain and Wild Horse. They say there is not a white person left in a tract of territory of over one hundred miles square in Southeastern Oregon. Their scouting parties say Stein mountain proper is almost inaccessible. There are precipices on its rugged sides which troops cannot climb. They saw several Indian camp-fires at night, but of course they would not attempt to dislodge the savages with a force of only fifteen men. Many houses between Fort Harney and White Horse have been burned. The settlers can not be prevailed upon to go west of White Horse. They saw a number of abandoned ranches and heard of several murders and stealings. The hostiles are said to be very numerous and are armed with breech-loaders. They have a large band of horses, and are supposed to move their main camp frequently to find pasturage for their animals.

THE POTTER AFFAIR.

The Potter investigation grows richer as each day's developments are made known to the public. Mrs. Jenks has by her wit and evasion confounded the Democrats, and furnished the material for Butler to do them greater damage. The Anderson-Weber guarantee is becoming weaker each day. To assume, in the first place, that Anderson and Lin could blacken the reputation of John Sherman, Stanley Matthews, President Hayes, and other men of such character is like the assumption that a diminutive fog could shut out the sun's rays. Mrs. Jenks a part of the besliming crowd, says: "John Sherman did not write the letter accorded to him," and it is not improbable that Mrs. Jenks, the amanuenses, as she claims, of this letter, either wrote it herself or the letter was written by Weber, who now lies in his grave. Mrs. Jenks has been two days on the stand, and is to-day giving testimony. Suppose she is proved to have perjured herself? Anderson's testimony can not be considered, save in a similar light, and the Democratic position is only made the worse. The Democrats, by such campaigning, are simply ensuring their own defeat.

The sinking of the shaft of the Grand Prize mine has been discontinued for the present. The Times-Review says the trouble arises from a large body of water which constantly flows into this mine on the 400 level. The new machinery is being put up and the sinking of the shaft will be resumed about the first of July.

RENO WEEKLY GAZETTE.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1878

Special Train.

The V. & T. R. R. Co. will put on a special train during the Reno races, which will take place on June 27th, 28th and 29th. This train will leave Virginia city at 9:10 in the morning, and returning will leave Reno at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. This will give all visitors a chance to see the races and other attractions of the town, and enable them to get back in good time. Those who go especially to see the races may get off at the track, where they will be able to get everything necessary for temporary accommodation in the way of eating and drinking. The people of Reno are always courteous to strangers within their gates, and are not given to making extortionate demands for such supplies as they furnish the hungry and thirsty. The fare for the round trip to Reno and back is placed at $2.50, which will make it possible for all sport-loving citizens to have three days of fun on the turf. If there are any who desire to stop off at Carson they can make the round trip for $1.50. Children under twelve years of age will be charged only one-half of the reduced rates. In these matters the managers of the railroad company are displaying a spirit of liberality which will surely be appreciated by our people.—Gold Hill News.

And now that our reputation for hospitality is so good, let us maintain the same and when our friends from the Comstock and Carson attend Mr. Norcross' races, we are fully convinced that they will return well pleased with Reno and its citizens.

Annual Meeting.

The stockholders of the Farmers' Co-operative Association held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon. Reports were made by the old officers which show that the affairs of the association are in a flourishing condition, and the prospects for the future were never so flattering as at the present time. The election of Trustees and officers then ensued, and the following gentlemen were elected to hold office for one year: Trustees—George Alt, A. A. Longley, J. C. Smith and Geo. S. Smith of Reno, H. K. Cornell and Fred Hines of Susanville, and George W. Mapes of Sierra valley. Officers—President, A. A. Longley; Vice-President, Geo. Alt; J. C. Smith, Treasurer; Secretary and Manager, John Cahlan.

BOWERS MANSION.—We have often said that there is no pleasanter spot in this State for a picnic than Bowers' Mansion. By glancing over another column the reader will find a few of these reasons freely stated. This lovely retreat is convenient of access to our citizens, and one of our country men, Nat Holmes, a genial gentleman who understands the wants of pleasure seekers and has anticipated the same by most admirable provisions, is the proprietor. We should take occasion to speak of Bowers' Mansion again but trust that ere long we shall have the pleasure to announce a Reno picnic for that most charming spot.

FISH OUTRAGE.—The dam owned by the People's Ice Co., on the Truckee has effectually and fatally barred the progress of every fish which has reached it. Five hundred pounds of trout were grab-hooked below this dam in a single night last week, and were shipped to the Virginia market. Mr. McGlashan to the front. Such outrages should be stopped. But it is sufficient for McGlashan to learn of these facts, and he will take steps to immediately compel the People's Ice Co. to put in the necessary fish-ladders.

ALMOST A FIRE.—About 1 A. M. Wednesday Mr. Wm. Getchell put out a fire which had caught in some lumber in the Reno lumber yard. The fire evidently originated from a spark, which escaped from the wool engine and had lodged in some sawdust, where it very gradually ignited this dust and afterwards developing into a flame set some lumber on fire. Had Mr. G. not discovered this fire five minutes longer, several thousand feet of lumber would have been consumed.

OFFICERS.—The following named gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year at a regular meeting of Truckee Lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F., held at their hall last evening: Noble Grand, F. C. Updike; Vice-Grand, J. C. Harnes; Secretary, Wm. Lucas; Permanent Secretary, G. W. Cunningham; Treasurer, Isaac Fredrick; Trustees, C. C. Powning, J. H. Kinkadee, R. W. Ash.

Fatal Accident.

About 2 o'clock Monday afternoon Dan Jordan, forward brakeman on conductor Havenor's train, met with a severe, and as it has subsequently proven, a fatal accident. He was about to couple two cars and attempted to step upon the pilot or cow-catcher of the engine, as it was slowly moving out of the yard at Steamboat. His foot slipped and he fell from the track, but his right foot was caught by the pony wheels of the engine and the heel mashed off and the small bone of the leg broken. His leg was promptly corded to stop the flow of blood and the unfortunate man hurried to Carson by engine and caboose. A doctor was called, but the quack did not cut off Jordan's leg, but let the man die, which he did Tuesday 11 o'clock. Jordan leaves a wife. We say the Dr. let the man die, so it must appear if our information be correct. If in error, we will make due reparation by counter statement.

Miner Killed.

Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock John Isola, an Italian aged some forty-two years, was killed by a falling ore bucket in the Jones & Kinkadee mine at Pyramid. John was bailing out water at the 330 level. The ore bucket, full of ore, was being drawn to the surface; when it reached the surface it passed into an adjoining slide and the rope, therefore, when the bucket arrived at the shaft, must be cut in two or something give way. The rope gave way and down fell the bucket 330 feet, striking John. His right leg was broken and his brains scattered. Coroner Haslund went out to the mine that evening, held the inquest and Wednesday afternoon he was buried. This is the first fatal accident at Pyramid, and it was purely accidental.

Man Found Dead.

About 7 o'clock A. M. Thursday Mr. L. W. Lee went out to his back stable and found J. W. Carey, as it subsequently proved dead. The circumstances of this peculiar case are as follows: A man came from Virginia city nearly a week ago, and asked permission of Mr. Lee to sleep in his barn. Mr. Lee granted his request. Lee gave him something to eat and supposed that in a day or two the man would be well enough to go about his business. Last night Carey was seen and appeared as well as usual. But when Mr. Lee called a second time this morning he found him dead. He appeared to be a man of more than ordinary information, is an American by birth and about fifty-five years of age. The Coroner's inquest was held this afternoon.

Public Schools.

The closing exercises of Mr. Ring's room were held Wednesday. In the forenoon after the singing came the class in geometry. Miss Flora Northrop, the only member in this class did well. Then came the second and third classes in arithmetic. The forenoon examination closed with the first class in arithmetic. This afternoon the classes in algebra and grammar were examined. Mr. Ring's pupils as a rule did well. Thursday and on to-day there will be no session in his room, but the time will be consumed in rehearsal for the public entertainment on Friday and Saturday evenings at the Academy of Music. To-morrow Mr. Cantrill will hold his examination.

DISBANDED.—Four members of Washoe No. 2 met Wednesday and agreed to disband. They turned the hand engine over to the fire department and gave their trumpet to McFarlin. They were in a quandary what to do with the company's home money on hand. We presume that it will also be turned over to the department.

CLOSE OF SCHOOL.—The Glendale school, Miss Royce, teacher, closed for the summer vacation last Friday. After the exercises in the school-room were terminated, the teacher, pupils, and a number of friends enjoyed a picnic dinner, and spent the remainder of the afternoon in the informal manner characteristic of such pleasant occasions.

SALE OF CHROMOS.—A large number of ladies and gentlemen were present Tuesday night at the sale of those elegant chromos in Marshall's building. The sale was very lively and a number of our citizens were seen about 10 o'clock wending their way homeward with a fine large beauty to adorn their parlors.

Sodie Gush.

A Fourth of July without soda water is like an oyster without vinegar, an egg without salt, a kiss without a mu-tache. If there is in reality such a thing as gush of the patriotic sort, it is the effervescent gushing of the syrup of our sires as it sizzles forth from the down discharging vent of a soda fountain. While, tearing asunder the stoutest ties of affection, abandoning the soda fountain of his youth, leaving it in Thaxter's hands. There it stands; there it squirts! My young friend, you of the love which lodges in Arabella's soft and throbbing heart, do not forget that fountain! Go to it; trust in it; patronize it; bid it a brief good bye, and then fetch yourself and your dear, nose-betogled darling back to it again, and give her another treat.—Carson Appeal.

The above quite neatly expresses what we have been tempted to say of Messrs. Osburn & Shoemaker's soda fountain. Mighels has furnished the item, however, and his fresh style will add but zest to your indulgence in the sodic draught.

Race Items.

Among those in Reno we notice Jasper Babcock and Jos. Stewart from Virginia City, H. M. Yerington, J. T. Pantlind, J. D. Minor, Bob Pixley and J. Kersey from Carson are in attendance at the races. The pool selling last night was not very heavy on to-day's races. In the trotting race South Platt and Jewess sold even; two others in the field. In the running race, Hattie D. and Ramrod sold even, a third horse in the field. The following is the programme for to-morrow: Running, dash of one-half mile; purse $50. Trotting, purse $125; mile heats, three in five to harness; free for all that have not beaten three minutes. Trotting, 150; two mile heats two in three to harness; second horse $30. Pools sell this evening at the Arcade hotel.

GRAND BALL.—From Mr. Sanders, who has just returned from Bowers' Mansion, we learn that Nat Holmes proposes to give a grand ball at the Mansion, on the evening of July 3d. Mr. S. says that this place has been elegantly fitted up by Mr. Holmes, and is one of the finest places on this coast for a picnic. The building has been recaptured, and in a word refurbished throughout. The grounds are clean and provided with swings, croquet grounds, etc., for the accommodation and convenience of the public. The shade trees are numerous, well trimmed and of the best varieties, as well as artistically located. The large bathing pond is certainly a most attractive feature. The water is just warm enough and of the right depth and bathers are furnished with sun. Bowers' Mansion is now in the right man's hands. Those who visit this lovely spot and fail to enjoy themselves would find Paradise a dull retreat.

RETURNED.—Mr. Louis Walker, who has just returned from the Santa Fe mining district in Esmeralda county says that the mining claims in that district are looking finely, and several of them promise to prove very rich mines. We saw a number of specimens from the Rebel claim which would assay several hundred dollars to the ton. This district lies 150 miles south of Wadsworth, which is the nearest point of railroad communication. We are glad to hear of the prosperity which threatens to come upon several of our citizens who are largely interested in this new field.

LITERARY.—We are informed that three young ladies of the burg are engaged in writing a novel. From the originality as well as the ability of the ladies, we can but predict a ready sale of the work when it is presented to the public. They expect to have the manuscript ready for the printer in about two weeks. Reno will take several hundred copies, Carson will gladly patronize, and the Comstock will prove a bonanza.

CALEDONIA PICNIC.—From the Gold Hill News we learn that the Caledonia club of Virginia city have decided to hold their annual picnic at Dall's ranch, August 10th. It will be made a grand affair. All the popular national games will be given on the occasion and many beautiful and valuable prizes will be distributed.

PERSONAL.—Mr. John H. Kinkadee, Republican candidate for Governor, is in town. He is a gentleman of ability and political integrity, and would poll a very strong vote should he receive the nomination for chief executive. It is asserted that in his own county Humboldt, he would receive 200 majority over any other candidate.

Coroner's Verdict.

The Coroner's jury in the case of the Italian, John Isola, who was killed by a falling ore bucket on Tuesday morning in the Jones & Kinkadee mine, Wednesday afternoon rendered its verdict. This verdict gives few facts in addition to those already published. John had been dipping up water in the sump of the 330-foot level, and at 9 o'clock sent up his first load of ore to the surface. He started the bucket on the wrong guide. The result was, when the bucket had nearly reached the top, the rope was drawn at an angle across the sheave. In this position the rope was cut by the parts immediately around it, and the bucket of course fell at once on the unfortunate man. He was about thirty-eight years old and is the first man ever buried at Pyramid. No blame can be attached to the owners or foreman of the mine. The accident resulted purely from the carelessness of him who paid the penalty with his life. The burial was plain, and few words were said as the last remains of the first man ever interred in this mining camp was laid in the lap of his aged mother and covered from the view of man by her component parts.

Catarrah Generosity.

Thursday we received the most remarkable advertising proposition that has ever been received at this office. A gentleman represented as an aged and wealthy man, J. P. Mount, residing in Ogdensburg, New York, has a remedy which he asserts will cure consumption, catarrh, asthma, headache and nervousness. He sends the recipe free to any person sending for it, with instructions for preparing and using the medicine, requiring only that the person so sending enclose a stamp to pay the postage. His proffer to us was that we insert about thirty-five lines in the Gazette for one year and send him the paper, and all for two cents—one, of a horse being driven in a sulky, and the other of an eagle with spread wings. But any reader suffering from any or all of the above complaints can, for three cents, get a recipe of what may be of great value or of no value whatever. We have suffered with catarrh and have been informed by friends (?) of innumerable remedies, but a simple application of salt and water will always furnish relief.

A CARD.

Editor Gazette:—DEAR SIR.—Having engaged myself with the well-known house of E. Kennedy, 505 California street, San Francisco, who has engaged a celebrated cutter from Broadway, New York city, at great expense, I would be pleased to have you send in your order, as I have placed all my measures taken by me on his ledger, and if desired I will send samples of all our late imported English and French goods.

Very Respectfully
G-28-1f. J. P. HIXON.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT THIS EVENING.—Do not fail to attend the school entertainment this evening at the Academy of Music. An interesting programme has been prepared, and we are convinced that the audience will be pleased with the performance. The object is a most excellent one, viz: the purchase of a library for the use of the large pupils attending the public schools. We trust our citizens will appreciate Mr. Ring's efforts in this matter and be present at this and to-morrow evening's entertainment.

I. O. O. F. ELECTION.—The following officers were elected on Monday evening by Reno Encampment No. 5, I. O. O. F., to serve the ensuing term: C. P., G. W. Cunningham; H. P., F. C. Updike; S. W., D. McKay; J. W., J. S. Gilson; S. J., S. Bowker; T. I. Fredrick; Trustees, J. S. Shoemaker, G. W. Cunningham, I. Fredrick.

GONE BELOW.—Monday evening Superintendent Jas. G. Fair passed through Reno en route to San Francisco, where he will remain four or five days to straighten up his business. He will then sail down the coast to Los Angeles or proceed to some thermal springs.

ANOTHER.—Wednesday Potter, the wheelbarrow tramp, will leave Omaha for San Francisco. Those who have seen him tell us that he walks with a lively stride, and wheels a very light arrow. The bet, we believe, is $1000. When he arrived at Omaha he was fifteen days ahead of time.

Jottings.

—Read that Austin letter.
—See 50-cent column for cheap furniture.
—California at 15% don't speak well for $2 dividend stock.
—Pools sell for to-morrow's races this evening at the Depot hotel.
—Hereafter the dry goods store of Messrs. Grey & Isaacs will be closed on Sundays.
—A quantity of general news and editorial matter has been crowded out.
—Dr. S. Bishop is on a visit to friends and relations in and about Eureka.
—The prospects for a hurdy house in Reno during the races are very poor—bombs are too cheap.
—We understand that a number of the residents at Peavine will celebrate the 4th of July at Independence lake.
—The North Bonanza mine at Virginia City, is shipping ore to the Auburn mill.
—Remember the sale of chromos this evening at Marshall's building. Last evening of the sale.
—Mr. Courtney is constructing two excellent stone walks, forty feet long and four feet wide, for Mr. Manning. These are the walks, gentlemen.
—A meeting of the tax-payers' committee is called for to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock at the office of attorney J. Bowman.
—Miss Mary Taylor, will open a private school Monday July 8th in Mr. Cantrill's room in the public school building.
—Members of the Reno Sporting Club are requested by the President to meet at the V. & T. Freight Office this evening at 7:30 o'clock.
—Panther mining stock has been assessed ten cents per share, delinquent July 27th. Hussy boasts of a 15-cent assessment, delinquent July 24th.
—The first regular meeting of the Nevada State Medical society will be held in Virginia city next Monday. Several of our Reno physicians are members of this society.
—Our lady readers will find the local ad. of Mrs. Elliott of interest. Her goods speak for themselves. The advertisement directs the addressed where to go.
—If you would have any regard for your head covering, ye readers of the masculine persuasion, stop at John Sunderland's and examine his late stock of summer hats.
—Marion Little, who owns a ranch north of Carson, cut a young man named Roberson with a spade and shot him in the elbow yesterday afternoon.
—The July dividends of California are offered on the street for $1.50. The Nevada Bank has reduced the loan limit on the stock to $10, but has not yet called for "more mud" from those who have obtained $15 on the stock.
—We have it on good authority that Rev. G. W. Fitch has not received a call from Trinity parish to be its rector. Rev. Mr. Lucas is and will continue the rector of the Episcopal in this place. Rev. Fitch may and probably will join the Episcopal church at this place.
—Mr. J. P. Hixon, of San Francisco, who is merchant tailor for the well-known house of G. Kennedy, on California street, inserts a local card elsewhere which will be of interest to those wishing made to order the best and latest style suits from first quality French and English goods.
—The San Francisco stock board will take next week as a holiday week. They will, therefore, adjourn to-morrow until July 8th. There is more than a mere observance of the Fourth in this week's vacation. Stocks now are weak, and developments, jobs, etc. probably need time for their winding up.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—This body, to meet at Virginia City, on Saturday, 29th inst., consists of the following named persons: William Hill, Churchill county; E. D. Black, Douglas; W. H. Hall, Esmeralda; H. C. Street, Elko; John H. Dennis, Eureka; C. C. Biles, Humboldt; Miles Quillan, Lincoln; Robert McCeth, Lander; J. I. Angell, Lyon; Frank Owen, Nye; J. A. St. Clair, Ormsby; E. B. Stonehill, Storey; Thos. E. Haydon, Washoe; Geo. E. McConkey, White Pine; J. C. Currie, Robert E. Lowery, W. E. F. Deal, T. W. Healy, R. E. Kelly, at large.

Yesterday's Races.

The attendance at the fair grounds yesterday was very light but will no doubt be much increased to-day on the occasion of the two-mile trot. The first race yesterday was half-mile and repeat. Longley, Ramrod, Hattie R., Alice and Catalpha came to the score. Ramrod won easily in 51 1/4 52, Hattie second and Catalpha outside. The second race was a trot, best three in five between South Platte, Jewess and Henry B. South Platte was a slight favorite, and won in 2:49 1/4, 2:54 1/4, 2:50 1/4. Henry B. was distanced. The programme for to-day is the half-mile dash between Cousin Vic, Ecliptic and Hattie R. Trotting, best three in five, between South Platte, Jewess and Henry B. Trotting, two miles and repeat, between Lulu, Democrat and Muggins.

For to-morrow the grand match race is the attraction and ought to be very interesting. We believe the horses will go for blood, and they are all exceedingly noisy when started on the right foot. A large crowd is expected from Virginia to-morrow. Following is the programme:
Running—Purse $150. mile and repeat. Second horse, $25.
Trotting—$400; mile heats three in five to harness. Match race between Tom Morgan, Jack Stuart, Jim Cook and Muggins. Second horse $100.

A SPLENDID TRIP.—There is some talk of a party of Reno ladies and gentlemen going on a week's visit to Independence and Webber lakes, near Truckee. The former lake is now under a new management, and the grounds adjoining are fitted up with croquet grounds, swings, bath houses and dancing halls. Boats and fishing tackle free. Such a place is indeed a paradise for the tourist. Carriages for the lake leave Truckee Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Should the party be formed they will leave here sometime next month and go by private conveyance. They propose to camp out and have such a times only those who go in for fun and recreation can have.

REPORT CORRECTED.—It has been reported by a firm in this town that there could be no extras obtained for the Wheeler harvesting machines; also that Mr. C. A. Perry, the agent, was only to be here a short time. Mr. Perry wants it distinctly understood that he has all extras for his machine, and that Reno is his home. Therefore, anything to the contrary is entirely untrue, and, he alleges, is merely told to injure his business.

IN PRESS.—A. L. Bancroft & Co. law publishers of San Francisco, have now in press a digest of the twelve volumes of Nevada Supreme Court Reports, and four volumes of Sawyer's Circuit Court Reports, by Hon. Thos. P. Hawley, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Nevada. The volume will appear early in July. This is rather tough on Messrs. Waldo & Julien, who are engaged in getting up a similar work.

WARRANTED.—All the machines started by C. A. Perry this year have given complete satisfaction. The Wheeler Mowers and Reapers are fully warranted, and no one who buys is obliged to keep one unless they do all that is claimed for them. They cut one acre of grass or grain per hour, and do it with lighter draft on man and horses than any other machine made.

Closing Exercises.

The closing exercises of the various departments of the public school were attended by a large number of visitors this afternoon. The speaking, singing, etc., were very interesting, the pupils reflecting much credit on their teachers.

PERSONAL.—Matt. Canavan, owner of Stewart and Democrat, returned from San Francisco this morning. Mr. Canavan was re-elected Superintendent of the New York Consolidated at the annual meeting, by a vote which was very complimentary to his management.

Extraordinary inducements! Immense crowds! Everything harmonious at the great slaughter of pictures at Marshall's Rooms by auction! Everything to be closed out this evening regardless of cost. Don't miss the winding up sale.

Workingmen's Meeting.

A fair crowd assembled on Saturday night at Earl's depot, to hear several speeches from Workingmen. Mr. J. A. Jones, was elected President, vice Cutting who resigned. Mr. Hoole made a speech in which he attached blame to the committee, who waited upon Mr. Peleg Brown, in reference to the construction of the Truckee and Steamboat irrigation canal. He said, Mr. Brown told him in Carson, that he, Brown, offered to give the Workingmen the job and the committee turned away from him.

This committee was also requested to give a written report and no report in writing can be found, and, it is asserted, never was made. Mr. Leeper made a good speech, and among other remarks gave the carpenter, A. C. White, a benefit, as follows: "One of our disaffected members, who prides himself as a reformer, attended the tax-payers' meeting and tried to bulldoze investigation of county affairs by moving to add all the county officers and the two grand juries to the Committee of inquiry into county affairs. Then I dropped him as I would a spoiled egg and one eternally gone. This man is our reformer—Mr. White. A nice reformer he is. Mr. White arose to explain, and said he would give two dollars to Leeper's one to carry on the investigation. He tried to speak further, but was prevented by the audience who cried him down.

Mr. Jones then made one of his characteristic speeches and the meeting adjourned to meet at the same place next Saturday evening. At which time a secretary will be elected and a number of speeches made.

New Mine.

The old record of the Juniper claim at Pyramid, was filed for record in the Recorder's office Monday. The new company will be incorporated to-day. This claim lies adjoining the Jones & Kinkead, and is said to contain some excellent ore, which has assayed as high as $270 to the ton. It has been prospected in several places and gives most favorable indications of being a very rich mine. The work of developing it will actively commence in a few days.

THE SOIREE.—The social party at Kimble's hall was a most pleasant affair. About twenty couples were present, and dancing was continued until 12:30. Although the evening was rather too warm for dancing, yet by copious draughts of ice-water and full ventilation, we tripped our gentle No. 9's in a manner to our own satisfaction, nor to the inconvenience of our friends on the other side of the hall. The music of course was good, everyone was friendly, and therefore, as usual, all had a good time.

GLASS BLOWER.—Prof. Theodore Greiner, a bohemian glass blower, has some fine glass steam works and dainty glass toys, on exhibition at the Opera House. His apparatus for showing the circulation of the blood is pretty as a toy, but is of little worth to illustrate arterial circulation. Very fair little show for those who have not seen anything of the kind, and two bits pays the entire bill.

FARE DURING THE RACES.—The fare from Virginia city to Reno during the races will be $2.50 for the round trip, and from Carson $1.25. Supt. Yerington's action in this matter is appreciated by our citizens, and we trust will be taken due advantage of by many of the citizens of the Comstock and the State capital.

JUSTICE COURT.—A civil case between Mrs. May Jones vs. Mrs. O. O. Cole, was tried last Monday in the Justice Court. Webster in linen coat to suit the times, appeared for the plaintiff. Julius in his best clothes and hair puffed, likewise Waldo with a new pair of pants one inch too short, appeared as counsel for the defendant.

Pyramid News.

Revival of Activity—News from the Mines.

George Alt, one of Pyramid's old friends and a good man for this or any other county, returned from Pyramid Sunday. He reports the new road from the old town to the Jones & Kinkead mine now completed, and it greatly facilitates the work of hauling ore from the mine.

The Monarch is running one shift of men in its tunnel, which is now 325 feet in length. The Monarch company may strike the ledge at any time now, and when it is cut the tunnel will be 160 feet below the surface.

Mr. John Hymers has opened a hotel and lodging house in the lower town. John knows how to care for the wayfarer, and those who visit the new camp may be assured of good treatment.

There are between fifty and sixty men in the camp and more are constantly arriving. There is talk of starting several other claims soon. Two or three experts from San Francisco have visited the camp recently. It may safely be said that Pyramid is entering upon a new era of prosperity, and if the ore now hauled to the Auburn mill can be reduced profitably—and there is little doubt of the fact—Pyramid will take rank next to the Comstock.

Personals.

D. A. Bender is in town.
J. P. Jackson, of Virginia, was in town Saturday.

Matt Canavan, President of the Nevada State jockey club and a prominent mining Superintendent of the Comstock, went to San Francisco Saturday night. He will talk races during his absence.

N. D. Roberts, advance agent of the Tony Pastor troupe, was in town Sunday, and this morning went to Virginia city. The troupe will play in Piper's opera house the first week in July. We trust that they will favor our citizens with an entertainment on their return.

VERDI NOMINEES.—From a gentleman from Verdi we learn that a political non-partisan convention was held in Verdi Sunday, and the following gentlemen nominated for the respective offices for which they are named: For Assemblymen, J. P. Foulks and R. H. Hoy; District Judge, S. A. Hamlin; Sheriff, Padgett; County Commissioner, Ike Alexander; District Attorney, W. S. Coldron; County Clerk, John Condon; Recorder and Auditor, Cris Haller; Treasurer, Mark Hammer; Superintendent of Public Schools, George Tilford.

AH CHOUEY TO HANG.—The jury in the case of the State vs. Ah Chouey brought in its verdict at 7 o'clock Saturday evening. Their verdict is for murder in the first degree. Court adjourned until next Thursday, when Ah Chouey will receive his death sentence. The celestial bears a bad name among the Chinamen. One John says "Ah Chouey heap bad man; kill one Chinaman in Virginia city, one in Carson and one in Reno." He is a hard case and no doubt deserves hanging. He is, beyond question, a paid murderer, and as such should hang.

GLASS BALL SHOOTING.—The Reno Sportsmen's Club met Sunday afternoon a short distance west of the Lake House, set their glass ball trap and enjoyed a little machine shooting. In the first part of the sport Charlie Stoddard and Mr. Jackson tied. Mr. Jackson soon left the field, and in the subsequent shooting Stoddard stood first, Allen Bragg second, Ben Bacon third, and Matt Parrott fourth. Chamberlain and Alexander tied for fifth. Next Sunday afternoon the sport will be resumed.

USEFUL ABOUT A HOUSE.—Mr. I. D. Cross' fire escape ladder has received the additional improvement of a pulley swing, by which invalids and other furniture may be lowered from any story in a building, which is supplied with a fire escape, in safety to the ground. By the same device the firemen's hose may be quickly carried up to the height desired. These useful escapes will cost you, dear reader, the moderate sum of $90, extra finish, $100.

BULLION.—On Saturday night the following amount of bullion was shipped to San Francisco: 15 bars of California, valued at $76,906.67; 19 Con. Virginia, $85,384.90; 8 P. M. & M. Co., $13,517.19; and 4 other bars.

Race Matters.

Pool Selling—Horses and Trainers.

The track is in the best possible condition. The late rain showed where any slight depressions were, and these have all been filled, and the track put in as good condition as any track on this coast. Among the horses at the track are:

Tom Morgan, owned by Allen Bragg.

Eliptic, five years old, owned by Dan Dennison. Dan says of this horse that "He is threatened with a heap of speed."

Democrat and Blanche, owned by Matt Canavan.

Jewess, b. m., owned by W. R. Chamberlain.

Gipsy Maid, pacer.

Cosmic Vic, owned by M. C. Lake.

Washoe, a promising young stallion, owned by A. K. Lamb.

Lulu, owned by Jack Mitchell.

Chamberlain's young stallion, William R.

Dougle, a trotting horse.

Black Boss, owned by T. W. Norcross.

Nellie, b. m., owned by Winfrey.

Bones, a runner, owned by J. J. Dixon.

As trainers we met the following gentlemen: Dan Dennison, O. F. Brown, Q. Anderson and Tom Bean. There are at the track twenty-five race horses. The races for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, will be very fine, as will be seen by reading the full programme, found in another column. That Mr. Norcross' races will be first class may be further noted from the following item in yesterday's Virginia Chronicle:

At the races to come off at Reno on the 27th, 28th and 29th of the present month, the programme is a very attractive one, and the purses are sufficiently large to tempt horse-owners from all over the State to bring in their best and fastest stock. There will be running and trotting races each day, and some of the fastest horses on the coast have been entered.

Indian Vandango.

Friday afternoon some seventy-five Pio Indians came down from Virginia city, where they have been holding a three-days' vandango. Stripping themselves to the waist and rolling up their overalls, they coated themselves with red, white, brown and black paints. In this condition they marched through the eastern part of town for a time and then concluded to hire a hall and have a big dance. They had not the requisite cash to lease the Academy of Music and, therefore, concluded to give a short dance in the open air below the Reno lumber yard. The Indians gathered around their floor manager, Captain Charley, and commenced their racket. Two musicians rattled each a stick split nearly into two pieces, and seven or eight backs got up and stamped the ground and ran around in the ring for a time. The two musicians sang a duet and the dancers joined in the chorus. After amusing the crowd for a short time, Charley threw up his hands and exclaimed, "That's all," and the meeting suddenly stood adjourned. To-day a large number, possibly more than one hundred Indians, boarded the east-bound freight trains and went to Wadsworth, where they had a big dance and talk Saturday. A few Washoe Indians are among the number that went west. We may talk of good Indians, but Tom Fitch came near the truth when he said: "If there are any good Indians they are all dead." It is quite probable that these Pioes are drumming up a large band to join the Bannocks. If such be the case, before they reach Stein's mountain they will have a band of 150 or 200 warriors.

SALE OF PAINTINGS.—A select lot of oil chromos, real copies from old master pieces and pictures of real merit are now on exhibition at Marshall's Rooms, and will be sold this evening at auction. Among the collection are the following gems: Moonlight on the Nile and moonlight fishing on the Thames, by De Haas. Morning and evening on lake Tahoe, after Hill. Yellowstone park, headwaters of the Colorado and two views on the Truckee, after Bierstadt. Winter in Holland, after Lickhart. All to be sold, we are informed, positively regardless of cost.

Five hundred dollars reward will be paid for the delivery to his mother in Carson of Guy Stewart, the eight-year-old boy who disappeared from Dayton two weeks ago.

Jottings.

—Dr. Bronson, of Virginia city, is in town.

—Several locals have been crowded out by other matter.

—A. Jose's soda factory is doing a lively trade.

—A little caution during these hot days may prevent serious fires.

—For a cargo of congressional speeches Wren and Jones have our undivided thanks.

—Mr. E. P. Crouch, a gentleman connected with the Oakland press, is visiting his cousin, Mr. C. T. Bender.

—Lovewell, the car photographer, is doing a good business in small ambrotypes and all sizes of photographs.

—The County Auditor is now ready to draw warrants on the County Treasurer out of the government fund up to number 8443.

—Some would-be kind individual has sent us a quantity of music "for the press." A keg of beer—soda water would be preferable.

—The referee case of I. B. Marshall vs. Golden Pledge mining Co. drags its weary length along before Attorney Thos. E. Hayden.

—E. Chielovich & Co., wholesale and retail liquor dealers, announce themselves through the medium of an advertisement to-day. Read it.

—Steamboat was enlivened by a party of Hebrew citizens, who had as guests a number of ladies and gentlemen from San Francisco, Sunday.

—The wood shipments at Huffakers average about eighteen carloads, shipped to the Comstock per day. Nearly one hundred Chinamen are employed as wood loaders.

—A number of friends living near J. C. Smith's propose giving a little home picnic on the Fourth at Mr. Smith's ranch, which is some two miles south of town.

—The way births are coming in, who would say that we do not need additional school facilities? Luke has another blacksmith, as will be seen by reference to the appropriate heading.

—By glancing over our advertising columns, it will be seen that Reno will not be without amusement on the Fourth. In the evening a ball will be given at the opera house by Mr. John McGlinchey.

—Charles Knust offers a special premium at the coming State fair—an oil painting worth $20—for the best loaf of bread made by a lady. Let others emulate Mr. Knust's example.

—Our business men and farmers should all hold a life membership in the State Agricultural society. Now is the your time, gentlemen, to save up your spare change and just before fair time purchase your certificate.

—T. K. Hymers now goes about street whistling "Baby Mine, Baby Mine." He would sing, but it has a bad effect on his dog Dick. This faithful old canine has paws in his head whenever his master warbles.

—A picnic from Reno to Bowers' Mansion for July 15th is talked of. Half-fare and a day when all can get away from business is the reason assigned for holding on Sunday. The same might hold true on some Saturday.

—Sometime this week the C. P. & V. T. freight office employees will receive an electro telephone from the East. The object is to have communication one office with the other and thus save several business trips each day.

—At last the State arms are of some possible service. The old Governor has granted Alvaro Evans permission to use a quantity of said firearms to defend his stock in Humboldt against the untamed savage. When no Indians are near the herders can shoot rabbits, and when the red devils are around—well, that's another case.

—And now the weary tramp, as he rides on the broke-beam of a box car, reflects to himself as he fires of his hold, if I should fall, Beecher has said there is no hell, and death is not a horrible thing after all. And yet he holds on as if he was afraid Beecher might not have entirely reliable information from the outside precincts.

IN HUMBOLDT.—The Silver State says that J. E. Jones and others are now visiting mines in Paradise valley with a view of making a purchase of the mines should they prove valuable property.

Sierra Valley Items.

From Mr. C. C. Huntley, of Sierra valley, we learn that immense numbers of the festive grasshoppers have invaded that valley, and threaten to devour the grain crops. Already has part of the growing crop been damaged in portions of the valley. The farmers find them too numerous to kill or by any means destroy, and are therefore now cutting their grain for hay. The grasshoppers are now about one-third grown. Grizzly and Long valleys, which are near Sierra valley are also slightly troubled by the above pests, but as yet the number of these insects is so small that little fear is entertained that they will commit any serious damage.

In regard to the Seltier poisoning case, Mr. Huntley says that a number of those better informed in the matter believe that Mr. Seltier's cook did the poisoning. Some two or three weeks ago Mr. S. was robbed by an unknown party of $280. The cook has been watched since that time, and it is presumed by some, that he feared detection and to cover up this crime committed a greater one. This supposition is further confirmed by the fact that the cook has left since the poisoning.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The condition of Emperor William is satisfactory. His power of moving the left arm is perceptibly increasing.

Nine members of a gang of counterfeiters, having their headquarters near Baxter Springs, Kansas, have been arrested.

The condition of Queen Mercedes of Spain causes much anxiety. Violent hemorrhages on Saturday greatly weakened her.

A Cincinnati dispatch says that Vance, ex-member of congress, has been adjudged insane and taken to Athens for confinement.

Colonel George P. Kane, Mayor of Baltimore, died Sunday morning at his home, where he has been confined since the attack of paralysis on the 25th of April.

The spacious works of the plow company, Newark, N. J., on the Passaic river, were totally destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon; with several other buildings. A large number of hands are thrown out of employment. The loss is estimated at $150,000. Insurance unknown.

STATE NEWS.

Senator Jones is expected home on or about the 1st of July.

Good, who attempted to outrage a twelve-year-old girl at the Masonic cemetery at Virginia city, has been held to appear before the grand jury, with bail fixed at $1,000.

The total bullion yield of the bonanza mines to date amounts to $69,701,709.86. Before the end of the present month the yield will have exceeded $100,000,000.

The iron moulders and printers of Virginia city have applied for membership in the Mechanics' Union. There are forty moulders and fifty printers. They will probably be admitted at the next meeting.

Pollard has named John C. Howerton, his uncle-in-law, for $190, for work and labor performed. A change of venue was demanded by defendant, and the case taken to Falcon City to be tried by Justice Stafford. The trial came off yesterday, but the result hadn't been telegraphed at the time we went to press.—Times Review.

BERLIN CONGRESS.

The Berlin congress has more or less determined the Bulgarian question. Many of the conditions are yet to be acquiesced in by Russia, dependent upon the concessions made by the powers in reference to Roumania. The Russians are displeased that the Balkan passes are to be guarded by Turkish forces. The terms thus far made are to a very marked extent due to the firmness of Lord Beaconsfield. Disraeli made a very able speech on Friday, and informed the congress that England's conservative position must have more than passing influence, else he would return to London.

Gortschakoff is sick at St. Petersburg with the gout. Austria stands firmly by England, and these two are thus enabled to hold a balance of power in the congress. It is very probable that the session may be a stormy one before its conclusion and that all the questions to be discussed will not be amicably adjusted if they shall even be settled by the Berlin conference.

Carson Appeal: Some of the mint employees, those temporarily resting from Thursday last were baid off Sunday. The temporary suspension will last till the early part of the coming month, after which they will all be reinstated.

Another Unfortunate.

According to a notice published in the evening Gazette, the joy bells are ringing in two young hearts, and as usual we are mad about it. The reason is sufficiently plain. There was Joe Brogan, of Prosser Creek station, as brave and steadfast a young bachelor as one might wish to see. We have known him long and favorably, his reverence for single blessedness was always pleasant to our ears, and we placed every faith in our friend. But now look at him. "But yesterday and Caesar might have ruled the world," "Now, note so poor to do him reverence." He came to Reno with a blush upon his honest face, did Joseph, and we instantly suspected his motives. He rejected our advances by saying he was going to Steamboat. He went to that famous resort, but an estimable and beautiful young lady who called herself Mrs. Brogan accompanied him, and hence our rage. However, it is what one may expect of this world. The bachelor brigade has lost a brave one, and the Benedicts have gained. One by one the roses fade, and the valiant bachelor falls by the wayside. Close up, fellows; let's still present an undaunted front to the enemy, else there will soon be not even a corporal's guard remaining. We will bear no malice, however, but wish the young couple every joy which their honest hearts deserve. We acknowledge receipt of generous samples.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Seltier and Mr. Bobo, of Sierra valley, are in the burg. The poison case is as mysterious as ever. Mr. Seltier says he never suffered as much in his life as when under the effects of the poison. It appeared to him he was being both squeezed to death and torn to pieces. He yet feels some of the effects of the strychnine.

Reward.

Mr. Claude Seltier, who was poisoned on the 16th in Sierra Valley, offers $200 reward for the apprehension and conviction of the party who poisoned him. An additional reward will be given for the recovery of the whole or a part of the money which was stolen from him on the 6th of the month.

PIONEER'S PICNIC.—We call our readers' especial attention to the Pioneers' advertisement, not that we have their advertisement, but that we feel, independently of this fact, an interest in the success of their picnic. For full particulars glance over their column and make your calculations to attend.

The Virginia Chronicle, though opposing Gov. Bradley on the third-term issue, says it will support him heartily in the event that he is the choice of the Democratic State Convention. "We can eat crow, but we don't hanker after it." However, if the "Old Man" gets away with the baggage in the convention, the Sentinel will be found standing in for him until the last ballot is polled.—Eureka Sentinel.

Bannock War.
SILVER CITY, June 20th. — Two scouts connected with Egbert's infantry arrived here this afternoon and report a band of fifty Indians not far from Big Springs. The scouts had five government mules and abandoned them. They departed in hot haste for Silver City. Signal rockets thrown up from the vicinity of Big Springs the past few nights lead to the belief that large numbers of savages are still moving about between here and Cornucopia. Ninety cavalry horses were recently captured by the Indians near Fort Hamer.

LATEST FROM THE FIELD.
SILVER CITY, Idaho, June 21st. — The stage road between here and Winnemucca is clear of the hostiles. Several passengers came through this morning, and among them young Hamilton, who so narrowly escaped being killed by the Indians recently at Rattlesnake. They met Jerry Winnemucca and fifty other friendly Putes who had been in the hostile camp recently. The Bannocks claimed that they had then killed thirteen whites. Three white men were killed and burned in a cabin near Stein mountains recently. The Malheur reservation Indians were behaving worse than the Bannocks, slaughtering mares, colts and every animal that came within their reach. Hamilton says the Indians who burned the stage were not looking for it, but accidentally came across it. Among the booty captured was an immense roll of greenbacks. General Howard is still at Malheur City.

Extra Races.
The Trustees of the State and Ormsby county Agricultural society are certain to make the first meeting on the new track a success. In order to give all the owners of fast horses an opportunity to test the speed of their equines, the Trustees held a meeting last evening and resolved to hang out two more purses for trotters, viz: mile heats, two in three, 2:50 class. Purses $200. Horses entered for three-minute race at Reno not barred. Mile heats, three in five, to harness, 2:50 class. Purses $400. First horse, $250; second, $150. Tom Morgan not barred. These races are all set for the third day, and will make the best day's sport ever offered on a race course this side of the Sierra Nevada. Some of the fastest trotters on the coast will be entered, and the attendance will be large and enthusiastic. Let our citizens pull with the Trustees and the July meeting will prove a financial success. — Carson Tribune, June 21st.

Our Dignified Representatives.
New York, June 20th. — A World Washington special has the following on the closing scenes of the House: During the recesses in the early hour of the morning quite a number of members and House employees gathered on the Democratic side of the hall and made the old chamber ring with "Sweet Bye and Bye," "Nearer My God to Thee," "Whoa, Emma," "Sweet Home" and "Old Hundred." A mischievous page, unnoticed, during one of these songs took the Speaker's chair and brought the gavel down with such a thud as to instantly stop the hilarity, when he added with mock solemnity that there was too much noise on the right of the Chair. It was a moment before the chorus of singers discovered that it was neither the act nor voice of the Speaker.

False Report.
The reports from Wisconsin, relative to the rumored Indian trouble in the northern part of that State are utterly discredited, at least so far as they relate to any general combination of Minnesota and Wisconsin Chippewas to attack the whites. The Chippewas are not warlike Indians, and as for the Sioux, there are none in either State. An Indian outbreak anywhere east of the Missouri river is a most distant probability. A Rush City dispatch, to the Pioneer Press treats the affair across the St. Croix, in Wisconsin, as a mere scare.

Indians in Paradise Valley.
From the Silver State: A note from T. J. Bradshaw of Paradise valley, says: "The Indian scare is subsiding. Most of the families that went to Fort Beauman for safety have left and returned to their homes. I noticed on Tuesday the 18th instant, a broad trail of about twenty moccasin tracks half a mile west of my place. The Indians were headed down the valley, and I think it likely they intend to ride out of it."

Sending News to the Car.
BERLIN, June 21. — A messenger has gone to St. Petersburg, it is said, to report to the czar the progress of the negotiations, which are taking a different course from what Russia expected, owing mainly to the fresh rapprochement between England and Austria, which appears to render further concessions on the part of Russia necessary.

"Having neither guilty person to shield, nor innocent person to convict," said General Butler to his colleagues of the Potter committee a few days ago, "I want to know all the facts." That is the temper for an investigator.

Attitude of the Shoshones.
An Austin dispatch of June 21st says: The Reveille will this evening publish a letter from a rancher in Smoky valley, which states that the only Shoshones who have left that valley are a few idle, shiftless, gambling and drinking bucks, and that the majority of the band are quiet and peaceful, and industriously working on the ranches. Captain John, the chief of the band, told the Reveille informant that his men do not want to fight but to work, but he was anxious to know why the stores in Austin refused to sell them powder and lead. The attempt to purchase ammunition at this season of the year, when there is no hunting, is in itself a suspicious circumstance, and indicates that the Shoshones, while they might not in any considerable number go on the war-path with the Bannocks, are willing to smuggle ammunition to them, and to give them aid and comfort. In spite of the peaceful utterances of Captain John to the contrary, there is some little excitement at Battle Mountain, as is learned by a letter received from there, owing to the ambushing of a rodeo party in Squaw valley. A member of the party (one of Russell & Bradley's herders), had his horse shot from under him, and the party retreated to Battle Mountain. The letter says that while no danger is apprehended in Battle Mountain, things look equally in the immediate vicinity to the northward.

Air Ship.
Professor Richtel's air-ship made a successful ascension in Hartford, lately. The operator was a young man weighing ninety-six pounds, whose nerve was equal to his muscle, for he went up from the inclosure of the ball-grounds to a height at least twice that of the spire of the church of the Good Shepherd and then struck off in an easterly direction towards the river, intending, as he afterwards said, to cross the Connecticut. As it was apparent that a storm was coming up, the Professor signaled to him to return. The operator turned the car around in mid-air and returned, descending at the Professor's feet. Previous to this flight the operator ascended, turned the car about and descended several times, to show his perfect control over the machine.

Bank Robbery.
A robbery was perpetrated on the First National bank of St. Louis, Mo., June 21st. Shortly after noon some parties entered to make deposits, the cashier being alone at the time. After they had left the cashier went to the vault to place some money therein, and discovered that three packages of $5,000 each had been taken. Smaller packages, amounting to $2,700, are also missing. The cashier is certain the money was in the bank when the day's business began. There is no back entrance to the bank and no suspicious characters have been seen about during the day. The bank had a surplus fund of $20,000, and the loss will not embarrass it in any way.

Anderson's Reasons.
A Washington special to the New York Tribune says: Anderson's real reason for refusing to testify before the Matthews committee is that he fears being convicted on cross-examination of perjury and forgery, which would land him in the penitentiary. He fled the city when first wanted by the Matthews committee, under circumstances that indicated that he was being aided to escape by the Democrats, and he stated to-day that the Springer committee had advised him in his present course. He was brought here in charge of an officer, having only been found after Congress adjourned. It is probable that the committee will do nothing further at present.

601 in Eureka.
We hear it whispered around town that there has been a session of the 601, and that it will be followed shortly by the issuance of a number of invitations to certain gentry to emigrate to more congenial climes. The presence of a number of undesirable sojourners in the town, the prevalence of a general feeling of insecurity, and a desire to rid the community of this undesirable class without recourse to the uncertainties of the movement. — Eureka Sentinel.

A Good Colored Congressman.
CHICAGO, June 21. — The Tribune's Washington correspondent says: Congressman Rainey (colored) must be credited with being the most efficient and faithful member of the House committee on enrolled bills, and to his strenuous effort are due the speedy and successful enrolling of the sundry civil service bill. Speaker Randall openly thanked him for his zeal and efficiency in respect to that bill yesterday morning.

The Nevada Railway engineers' camp is now at Battle Mountain springs, in charge of Division Engineer Dolsen. The Chief Engineer and Treasurer are in San Francisco, interviewing contractors for the construction and equipment of the road. — Reveille.

A Secret Chapter of the Assassination of President Lincoln.

A Tribune's Washington special of the 22d has the following on the assassination of Lincoln: An eye witness relates that on the night of the assassination a private dinner party was in progress in the back room at Wormley's restaurant in Washington, at which were present General Baird, Robert Johnson, Samuel J. Randall, John Morrissey, John F. Coyle, editor of the National Intelligencer, and one other man. During the progress of the dinner, the waiter, who had been out on the street, returned and stated that the President had been shot at Ford's Theatre. The news created great consternation in the party, who at first thought the waiter was drunk or crazy. Later, when they were assured that it was a fact and that John Wilkes Booth was accused of the crime, Coyle, with blanched features and quivering lips exclaimed, "My God, gentlemen, this very day I met John Wilkes Booth on Market place. He was on a bay mare and rode up to me and handed me a sealed letter, saying as he did so, 'If you hear of me within twenty-four hours publish this; if you do not hear of me within that time, destroy this,' and rode off. Here is the package," continued Coyle, producing a letter envelope from his pocket. "What shall I do with it?" "Destroy it at once," said Randall. "They will hang anybody who knows anything about the assassination, no matter how innocently they came by the knowledge. Don't open it, but burn it up just as it is." "Yes," said Coyle, "burn it up, for God's sake at once." The door was carefully locked, a fire was made in the grate and the mysterious envelope and its contents carefully burned. Then the ashes were carefully collected and placed in a dish and water was poured upon them, and the two were mixed into a paste which was put into the fire and burned again.

The Sioux Sun Dance.

A Yankton, Dakota, dispatch of June 21st says: The young men at Spotted Tail's camp are just concluding their annual "Sun dance," and the barbarous festival has been of more than ordinary success. Forty-eight candidates passed through the terrible ordeal of self-torture, and are entitled to full diplomas as warriors of unquestioned bravery. The candidates for honors cut two longitudinal slits down each breast; one end of a lar' at is passed under the strip of skin and flesh between the incisions and tightly tied, and the other end is made fast to a high pole. The candidate then throws himself backward with his weight upon the lar' and the dance goes on until the flesh gives way. Should he fail to break loose in the manner prescribed, or should he faint during the operation, he is forever disgraced. The "Sun dance" just closed was held about fifty miles back from the Missouri river, and was witnessed by about 7,000 Indians and 25 whites. Old Spotted Tail was master of ceremonies, and from the manner in which he performed his incantations and flourished his mystic wail, from which dangled the scalp of a white woman, one would not suppose him to be a civilized white man who is carried upon the government pay rolls. Once a year Spotted Tail has his "Sun dance," and from the manner in which he performed his incantations and flourished his mystic wail, from which dangled the scalp of a white woman, one would not suppose him to be a civilized white man who is carried upon the government pay rolls. Once a year Spotted Tail has his "Sun dance," and from the manner in which he performed his incantations and flourished his mystic wail, from which dangled the scalp of a white woman, one would not suppose him to be a civilized white man who is carried upon the government pay rolls.

Shot His Bride's Foot Off.

The Sidney, Ohio, Journal says: "The strangest of strange accidents, and one which might have led to graver results, happened at the residence of C. H. Flinn, near Houston, last Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Flinn, who were but lately married, were awakened by a noise which they thought came from under the bed. Supposing burglars to be the cause, Mr. Flinn hurriedly jumped from the bed, got a shotgun and returned. Mrs. Flinn, all excitement, was just rising, and had her right foot hung over the bedside. Mr. Flinn, supposing the moving foot to be the head of an intruder, who was coming from his place of concealment, without any ado or hesitation, fired. The wife screamed and the husband flew about in a delirium. Mr. Flinn discovered that he had shot his wife instead of a burglar. Meanwhile, the bed clothing caught fire from the discharge of the gun, and was soon ablaze, and was quickly extinguished. Mrs. Flinn had a large part of her foot torn away, and was bleeding profusely. It was thought that amputation of the whole foot would be necessary, but it was afterwards found that three toes and a portion of the side of the foot would suffice. It was ascertained that no burglar was in the house after all."

Ladies Not to be Assessed.

The New York Tribune's Washington correspondent says the Secretary of the Republican congressional committee has forbidden the collection of money from the lady clerks in the departments, and he says that the few instances in which the ladies employed by the government have been asked for subscriptions have been the result of mistakes.

The Indian War.

The hostiles appear to have left the Stein mountain country, and their present whereabouts is unknown. They are supposed to be in the vicinity of Happy valley, but, as that place is some distance from the telegraph line, and information from there can only be sent by special messengers, it is not yet known along the telegraph line whether or not the troops from the north have encountered the savages. Chief Naches has signified his intention of getting against the hostiles. A message from him on the subject was received by the Indians here last Saturday afternoon, and they sent word to Cap. John, at the sink of Humboldt, and Cap. Broekridge, from the sink of Carson, and Chief Bain, from Walker river, who were attending a fandango at Wadsworth, to come here. Sunday these Captains and several of their followers arrived from the west and held a council. A majority of them were opposed to going on the war path, and unless Naches and Old Winnemucca come here in person and arouse the war feeling, the western chiefs and captains will not join him. There is considerable

EXCITEMENT ALONG THE CORNUCOPIA ROAD.

A note from James Richie informs us that a rodeoing party above Washburn's ranch were informed by a messenger, who arrived at their camp at 11 o'clock at night, that one of the party had been fired at by Indians, and two hours later the whole party started for Washburn's ranch. Next morning they concluded to go to work again. Since the note was received we have learned that nearly all the families along the Little Humboldt left for Paradise valley, and that eleven horses have been stolen by Indians from Evans' ranch. If such is the fact either the Putes or Shoshones have taken to stealing horses, as the Bannocks have certainly not ventured as far south as the Little Humboldt.

MOVEMENTS OF TROOPS.

We learn from Charles Hoppin, who left Willow Creek Sunday morning, that a company of cavalry, supposed to be Captain Wagner's, were seen at Sol House on the Bartlett Creek road, and are supposed to have reached McDermitt Sunday. Egan's command, two companies of the Fourth artillery, are now guarding the stage road north of McDermitt, and Captain Wells' company of the Fifth infantry, which left here last Friday, marched to McDermitt in three days. Two more companies of the Fourth artillery, marching as infantry, under command of Colonel Miller, and Captain Hasbrouck's Battery, mounted, will arrive here from San Francisco next Wednesday. — Silver state.

FOUR PER CENT. BONDS.

Secretary John Sherman, wants the people to take the four per cent. bonds. The treasury department circular says by way of inducing the people to take these bonds:

"The favorable statement of the money market induces the Secretary to press upon the people this loan by which they can obtain direct from the government a national bond of the highest credit and sanction, exempt from taxes and payable, principal and interest, in coin. Every citizen in the United States is interested in the success of this loan, and every sale of these bonds enables the government to save one-third of interest on an equal amount of the outstanding debt to be redeemed. These bonds should be the storehouse for the savings of the people. No facility or advantage will be given to large subscribers. It is the interest of the public that the bonds be distributed in small sums among the largest number of our fellow-citizens. Subscriptions to an amount equal to the bonds now redeemable would make an annual saving of $8,961,632, and such subscriptions can be made without withdrawing from circulation any of the money of the people. All blanks or forms of information needed will be furnished by the department without cost."

Honestly.

Eureka Sentinel: They tell a very good story on a minister in a neighboring town. He thought he recognized a lady friend leading a little boy up the street, and stepping to her side he asked, "Why, Mary, where did you get the child?" The scarlet face instantly turned to his was that of an entire stranger, and her quick reply fully satisfied him. "I came by it honestly," was all she said, and the good old man had something to think about all the way home to dinner.

Two Murders and Suicides.

David Crawford (colored), a dweller on Beech island, South Carolina, killed his wife and himself the other night, and the following morning a white man named Ferris killed a woman with whom he cohabited and then himself.

On the 1st of July the new mail route between Dayton and Belleville will be opened. Bennetts Brothers will carry the mail.

EATING CROW.

Cassidy, of the Sentinel, is an outspoken Democrat. He says: "The Virginia Chronicle, though opposing Gov. Bradley on the third-term issue, says it will support him heartily in the event that he is the choice of the Democratic State Convention. 'We can eat crow, but we don't hanker after it.' However, if the Old Man gets away with the baggage in the convention, the Sentinel will be found standing in for him until the last ballot is polled."—Enterprise.

The above inconsistency is not particularly surprising, and yet it has an odor so peculiarly Democratic that we cannot allow it to pass unnoticed. The Chronicle and the Sentinel, both leading Democratic journals of this State, have called Governor Bradley everything but an honorable man, and have been unceasing in their vile abuse of his official conduct. Nor have they spoken alone of his acts as the Chief Executive—his personal character has been assailed. He has been styled the "pig-headed old ignoramus," and "man without any honesty in purpose or practice," and now to say "we will eat crow and stand by him should he receive the nomination, to the very end," shows, plainly speaking, dishonesty in politics and a want of honest principles upon the part of both papers. The Sentinel, in commenting on a communication in the Elko Independent, in which the correspondent speaks of Gov. Bradley as a "faithful servant of the people," thus assails the Governor:

It is very distasteful to us to write down public officials, but there are cases wherein it becomes absolutely necessary. We wish the people of Nevada could know and understand Governor Bradley's record as we know and understand it. In this connection we cannot refrain from directing attention to just one point—we have not the time to follow his acts in detail. Men who understand the workings of the State government know that there is but one way in which taxpayers can be plundered—namely, through dishonest and trumped-up relief bills. Since Bradley has been Governor there has been drawn from the treasury in this shape not far from a million and a half dollars. Of all the relief bills that have passed the legislature during his term, he has never vetoed but one, this one involving a small sum due Warden Hyman for back salary, which upon every ground of decency should have been approved, and which was only disapproved through the most groveling prejudice. As a member of the legislature for almost the same period Bradley has been Governor, we opposed the passage of at least one-half the relief bills presented, believing them to be cold-blooded steals. Bradley approved all, and his official acts are held up as those of a faithful public servant. It can scarcely be that the people of Nevada as a mass are totally devoid of every semblance of discernment.

If Bradley has been guilty of the above charges, how can Cassidy, with any show of manly integrity, or the least shadow of political honesty say, "If the 'Old Man' gets away with the baggage, the Sentinel will be found standing for him until the last ballot is polled." Consistency, thy name is Cassidy.

The Virginia Enterprise justly complains of an expensive city and county government. Complaint has been made in this county that the fee law is very defective and that our county officers, under the present law, can charge fees beyond a reasonable amount for the service rendered. There are also other points in reference to the legality of charges. These points will be brought to the attention of the Supreme Court probably this week. All the counties of this State are interested in this matter. In Virginia city the complaint is that there is a separate city government, a separate county government, and a separate city government for Gold Hill. The grounds of complaint by the Enterprise is entirely just.

GENERAL CONNOR.

We are beginning to get frightened at this man Connor. It looks to us as though he would discount any Democrat in the State for Governor. If Eureka is a fair criterion, he will poll at least one-half the Democratic vote. As against Bradley he will carry four-fifths of the Democratic miners. The popular chord was struck when his name was mentioned. Judging from the manner of the receipt of his name by the Republican press, a portion of it at least evidently considers him the dark horse in the race. It strikes us, as an unbiased outsider, that his friends will sweep Eureka in the primaries by an overwhelming majority.—Eureka Sentinel.

In the Eureka Republican we find the following squib, which, although a small thing, shows that Connor is also "in the hands of his friends":

On Saturday night the National Guard were drilled at Armory hall. General Connor favored the boys with his presence and a speech.

"I deplore," says Gen. Butler, "the actual condition of the Presidency, to maintain which unchallenged wise and good men are driven to such desperate resorts of argument."

It rather occurs to our mind that some men are driven to desperate resorts, not of argument or principle to disturb the impregnable right and title of the President to his office. Ben should not throw bricks which fall to pieces before they reach the White House and scatter their returning dust in his own eyes.

A Big Fire and Explosion.

DUTCH FLAT, Cal., June 27.—An incendiary fire occurred at Little York last night at 12 o'clock, destroying thirteen dwellings, one boarding house and one powder house. The powder house contained 1400 pounds of dynamite powder. The explosion destroyed the Little York company's office, injuring Superintendent D. W. C. Morgan and killing six horses. The shock was so severe that it shook the town of Dutch Flat, three miles distant, as violently as a heavy shock of earthquake, and aroused the whole town. Incendiaries started fires at both ends of the Little York company's barn, cut the fire hose, broke the pipe and shut off the supply of water. There was no insurance except on the boarding house.

The Oregon election has probably gone Democratic, but the election is very close between the Democrats and Republicans. The Democrats have the plurality vote, the Independents coming in and by the closeness of the vote preventing a majority for the Democrats. The Democrats certainly have no special occasion to rejoice.

Butler says that Packard was elected Governor of Louisiana, and Hayes President of the United States. He will prove it. The Democrats say it is not fair to discuss their frauds. Butler did not find what he was looking for in the Potter committee.

The returns from the State constitutional election of California are not counted yet, but as far as known the convention will stand: At large, Non-Partisan, 85; Workingmen, 52; Democrats, 7; Republican, 8. A majority of the convention is 77.

U. S. Marshal Pitkin, of Louisiana, Mrs. Jenks and A. G. Haley were examined Wednesday before the Potter fraud committee in reference to the trumped up letter of Secretary John Sherman. Nothing new was elicited, save the fraudulence of this letter was made more apparent.

We acknowledge the receipt of the first number of the Eureka Daily Leader. It is a neatly gotten up paper, is independent-Republican in politics, and is edited by Messrs. Fisk & Canfield. We wish our new exchange prosperity. We have stolen a local from it already.

The young Queen of Spain is dead. She had been married to King Alfonso but five months. She was a beautiful woman, and but eighteen years of age.

A backman by the name of Darling committed suicide yesterday in San Francisco. Somebody's darling is no more, but had he died a natural death his name might not have been known outside of San Francisco. Little notoriety about the suicide business.

The Reno Gazette makes the very good point on the editor of the Carson Tribune, that that gentleman seldom learns the iniquity of a bill till it becomes a law.—Reveille.

The Carson Horribles will supplement the Fourth of July celebration in Carson, and now we know that the mass of Carson will formally celebrate.

The Workingmen's majority in Nevada county, Cal., was about 1900, so says the Republican.

THE LATE ELECTION IN CALIFORNIA

We have been very inquisitive upon the subject of California's election for delegates to the Constitutional Convention. We could not understand how Kearney could even carry one county or city like San Francisco, with both parties united against him. We therefore enquired as to the reason of his strength. The first reason seemed to be that men of capital and standing in the metropolis, failed to vote and work for their choice. This reason seemed insufficient, because the metropolitan press has been diligent in setting before the people every phase of the constitutional question, and the necessity for polling the full vote. Doubtless there were many, however, who preferred the easy chair to more active duties which should have engaged their attention. Another reason, and one nearer the truth, is found in the fact that a great class of laborers in San Francisco, having suffered by reason of depression in business, seeing that wages shrink while working hours remain the same, are groping for some lever by which they may upset the present condition of matters. They know that the present struggle for bread is very hard, and they are not accountable for it. They are thus in a position where the violent methods proposed by Kearney engages their sympathy. They demand relief, and where it does not come, the strong arm is always with them, the second thought.

Another reason, however, is found in the fact that men of means, and large numbers of them, voted for the Kearney ticket. Matters have been running entirely wrong, in their opinion. Cliques and rings have monopolized parties and made the business of this coast subservient and tributary to them. A change in these matters would come soonest through violent and sudden change of rulers, and hence Kearney had also a respectable following among the well-to-do citizens. These points are sufficient for the instruction of party managers, and with this view we have advanced them. These are hard times and the people know what they want. Help them, or they will help themselves.

A. H. Stephens spoke in Augusta last night to an immense crowd, and vindicated his course on the Potter resolution by the logic of subsequent events, and declared that he could not be ruled out of the party by political tricksters. If the coming District Democratic Convention failed to nominate him he would appeal to the people. He said Hayes was doing more for the South than Tilden could have done, and declared that he himself would die in the temple of Jeffersonian Democracy, free from the party lash or caucus lasso.—Ex.

One point in the above throws more light on the accusation made, and the opinion generally held, that a number of Southern Congressmen had an understanding with President Hayes about the time of the electoral commission business, and while no positive agreement was made, yet the President outlined his policy and gave these representative men to understand that the South would be treated with that consideration accorded to every section of the Union. Hampton, Hill, Lamar and Stephens have given frequent expression to the opinion which Stephens voices above, viz: that Hayes is now doing more for the South, and has done more, than Tilden could have done. Now that politics are obtaining a hold upon politicians, and drawing within political circles many men who are weak honest men, and yet would otherwise adhere to principles which they believe should obtain; Stephens being one of the strong honest men clashes very naturally with the Democratic caucus rings, and the latter seek to throw him off. If the Democrats of Georgia are true to their interests they will return Stephens to the House.

The Noble Red Man's Ultimatum.

Virginia Chronicle: The Plutes are willing to join in the Fourth of July procession, provided the committee will spread a banquet for them. For a good, square meal on the Fourth they are willing to march all day. It is feared that the Carson people will step in and secure this feature if a prompt and satisfactory arrangement is not made by our committee.

Placer gold diggings have been found on the Upper Sweetwater, near South Pass, Utah. It is claimed that the miners are making $8 per day.

Surgeons attending Associate Justice Miller announces that all the indications are favorable for his gradual recovery.

SUTRO'S TUNNEL.

Its Connection with the Comstock.
The Evening Chronicle of yesterday stated that the Sutro tunnel, which has been nine years in process of construction, and cost $4,000,000, would connect with the Savage mine before to-day—June 28th. The Chronicle says:

Before the next issue of the Evening Chronicle is read the Sutro Tunnel will probably be connected with the workings of the Comstock lode. At 10 o'clock this morning the miners working in the drift from the Savage incline and those in the heading of the tunnel could converse distinctly and exchanged greetings, and when the round of holes then being put in were blasted there would be a hole knocked through which would let the first breath of Carson valley air directly into the Comstock mines.

A REVIEW OF THE TUNNEL'S HISTORY.
Ground was broken for the Sutro tunnel on the 19th day of October, 1869. The work has therefore required eight years, eight months and ten days to complete. The progress was very slow at first, all drilling having been by hand; but in the spring of 1874, experiments with the Burleigh drill having demonstrated the advantages to be derived from the use of that machine, a carriage capable of supporting six of these machines while at work was made, and on the 22d day of June four were started. The progress was now much more rapid than ever before in the history of tunneling in the world, and on August 7th of the same year, two more drills were put to work. This made six altogether. From that date the average progress was over 300 feet per month up to April, 1877 when the header having entered the broad Comstock mineral belt, the heat became so intense that two drills had to be taken off the carriage. From that day the average monthly progress was 250 feet.

Work has been continued uninterruptedly from the time that ground was broken until to-day, but at times only two men were at work in the tunnel. The greatest progress was in December, 1875, when the header was advanced 417 feet; and the least in October, 1870, when it was only advanced 19 feet. The total length of the tunnel, as stated in the official chart published last September, is 20,170 feet.

The tunnel being connected with the Comstock workings, the next move of Mr. Sutro will doubtless be to start north and south drifts to connect with all the mines on the lode. The work has cost nearly $4,000,000. The drift on the 1700-foot level of the Savage is caved full.

Eleven Persons Drowned in a Lake.

On Sunday a party of young people from Ephraim and Mayfield, Utah, on an excursion to Funk's Lake, met with a distressing accident. At one o'clock while they were in the middle of the lake in a small boat, a gale came up, capsizing the boat and drowning eleven out of thirteen on board. The accident was witnessed from the shore, and great exertions made to save the unfortunate, but without avail. After the storm had passed the bodies were recovered. Following is a list of the lost, mostly children: Oliver Oviatt, Rosa Belle, Nora Neilson, W. Jensen, Henry Jensen, Mary Williams, Miss Stevens, C. Christiansen, Miss Anderson, Belle Thompson and Martha Anderson.

The Berlin Congress.

BERLIN, June 26.—At the sitting of the Congress to-day Prince Gortschakoff was present. It is believed the Congress discussed the southern boundary of Roumelia, and the appointment of a Governor for the Province, who is to be a Christian and appointed by the Porte with the approval of the Powers. England, Austria and Russia being generally agreed concerning the question of Bessarabia, Servia, Montenegro, Epirus and Thessaly, no difficulty is expected on this point.

The Carson Tribune of the 24th says: W. D. Denman, the head man of the Alpine wood drive, was in Carson yesterday. He informs us that 55,000 cords of wood were let into the Carson river on Saturday, and that the stage of water is very good for a favorable drive. Frank Young, a man employed on the drive, was drowned at the head of the river whilst cutting away the boom. His body was recovered and buried by the boys.

Death of Queen Mercedes.

MADRID, June 26.—The Queen died this morning. She passed the latter hours of her illness in a state of unconsciousness. Alfonso remained at her bedside until the end. Deep commiseration is expressed by all classes. The Prince Minister will communicate the intelligence of the death of the Queen to the Cortes this evening.

The Leopard mine at Cornucopia has 1,300 tons of ore on the dump. The new shaft is fully timbered to the depth of 600 feet, and the mine is full of promise.

Earthworks are being constructed at the northern outlet of the Carpathian passes, and mountain roads are being made practicable for artillery on both sides of the frontier.

AUSTIN LETTER.

Matters Political—Superintendent of the Mint, Linderman—Geo. Robeson—A Few Shots from One Who Knows Both Men.

Editor Gazette: In the future history of the United States, the present decade will probably be distinguished as the "Investigation Era," and the future generations will probably be able to reverse the generally received proposition, that "things are getting worse every day;" that is, if they believe all that is said about the men investigated. It is unfortunate that newspaper literature is ephemeral, else President Hayes would be handed down as worse than Catiline or Arnold, and beside whom Louis Napoleon would stand deified, and coup d'etat, an act of pure patriotism and unselfish ends, compared with the dark conspiracy against poor Sammy. But while there is in some cases, in others there is more truth than is really comfortable, and when we consider the manner of appointments, the elevation of common pot-house politicians to places of honor and trust; places requiring both talent and integrity, it is wonderful that a bit of base metal should now and then get into the crucible, and turn out mere dross.

There are two prominent officials, whose names have been so often connected with "jobs," some of them pretty loud jobs, too, and both of whom I have known personally, and I may be pardoned if I say a word regarding them, more as respects the personal characters of the men than their alleged crookedness of which I know nothing, except by inference.

THE FIRST IS OUR PRESENT

Director or Superintendent of mints, Dr. Linderman. When he was first appointed to the mint at Philadelphia, men who knew the man, stood and wondered. He was an illiterate, Pennsylvania Dutchman, who had a diploma, but no patients; a mere ward politician, with nothing to recommend him but his talent for manipulation and brass. A stolid, sandy-haired, flat-footed, unattractive fellow whose only distinguishing feature was a pretty showy, dandy, brunette of a wife, and when he was appointed Superintendent of all the mints, men had already ceased to wonder, and accepted it as one of those things "No fellow can find out." He has just one prominent characteristic—selfishness—which must be a bump as big as a camel's hump.

SOME YEARS AGO

I inhabited a cottage at a watering place on the Atlantic coast and became acquainted with a short-necked, round-shouldered fellow who, with his family, boarded at a neighboring hotel. He had been employed in a dry goods warehouse till during the war, when gold became the gambling fever, he had relinquished his situation to speculate at the gold room, where he was soon fleeced. I met him again five years ago in the coal regions of Pennsylvania traveling as an insurance agent and walking on his uppers. Two years ago I met him at the Lick house in San Francisco, in the employ of the United States mint, as a general entrepreneur, supervising contracts, etc., which usually means selling them. This was A. B. Linderman, the Doctor's brother, for whom he had provided, and whose name is connected with the alleged abuses, rightfully or wrongfully I am not called upon to say, but I have an opinion.

WHEN GENERAL GRANT

appointed as Secretary of the Navy Mr. Adolph E. Borie, my near neighbor at that time, Mr. Borie found that his heavy personal business would not permit his continuance in the office and he looked around for a successor who would not be likely to forget him in any fat contract, and found that man in an obscure village lawyer, Geo. M. Robison, at that time practicing in Camden, New Jersey. I was connected in business with a near relative of Mr. Robison, whose father, Judge W. P. Robison of Belvedere, was my intimate friend, and at whose house I have spent many a week during fishing season, in company with the late Secretary—a red-faced, bluff fellow who wore glasses, and an inveterate gormand and a dull companion. He may have been a good lawyer, but no one ever discovered it.

DURING THE WAR

he was appointed by the Governor of New Jersey to muster in troops, and it was said he mustered in quite as many rations as troops. He is said to be rich now. I am very certain he was not before his appointment, but it is probable he feathered his nest when he married a widow. I do not know, but I have a conviction that if he did not, he would never have married that widow.

Here are two men whom, as I have said, I have known personally; and certainly two men more unfit for their positions it would be difficult to find. This may not interest you, but it is one of the abuses of our system, perhaps unavoidable, and the public too rarely understand, and an abuse which will continue as long as the price for a seat in Congress is the appointment of the men who secure votes or manipulate the returns, to places which more nearly concerns the people than does that of their Representatives.

These cases and kindred ones call loudly for some system of civil service which will secure for us men fitted for their places, and save us the expense and scandal of investigations, usually brought about for political ends and from no spirit of patriotism. I've had my growl, and feel better.

THE FIRST BATTLE.

Buffalo Horn and Three Soldiers Reported Killed.

Reports from the front say that at 9 o'clock last Sunday morning, while General Howard was engaged in devotional exercises over fifty miles away, Colonel Bernard's cavalry who were camped on Curry creek about forty-five miles from camp Harney, and attacked them. A messenger was sent to General Howard informing him of the situation and asking for reinforcements. When the messenger left it was believed that Captain Robbins, chief of the Idaho scouts, who have accompanied Bernard all through the campaign, and three soldiers, were killed. It was also believed that the hostiles were suffering severely, and that Buffalo Horn, chief of the Bannocks, was among the dead. General Howard has sent orders to have reinforcements

SURPRISED THE HOSTILES,

HURRIED TO THE SCENE OF THE ENGAGEMENT,

while those on the Idaho road are instructed to keep a sharp lookout for the Indians and intercept them should they attempt to retreat into Idaho. Captain Ebert's infantry, about one hundred and eighty men, are near camp Lyon on the boundary between Idaho and Oregon in position to prevent the hostiles from retreating in that direction. It is believed that if the Indians are pressed by troops from the north they will fall back towards the lava beds of Barren valley, between Harney and Stein mountain, and if compelled to break up into small bands some of them may come across the line into Nevada.

ISSUING RATIONS TO FRIENDLY PIUTES.

We are informed that there are about three hundred Indians at camp McDermitt, and that Captain Thompson, commander of the post, is issuing rations to them by order of the Secretary of war. The Indians are much better satisfied with this arrangement than to being sent to reservations, because they get what the government pays for. Those Indians are friendly to the whites, and evince a willingness to fight the Bannocks or any other hostile Indians, but they are unanimously against going to the Malheur reservation.—Silver State.

A Voice from Tuscarora.

Professor W. F. Stewart thus writes from Tuscarora to the Virginia Enterprise:

After patiently hanging on here for more than a month past, with the hope that I might be able to send words of encouragement to my friends at Virginia city, I am at last compelled to admit to you that the present outlook of this camp is bluer than a saturated solution of indigo, and the prospects of anything more brilliant in the near future is daily growing beautifully less. I still hold an unwavering faith in the ultimate value and permanency of our mines, but I am now convinced that new life and confidence will not be restored to Tuscarora district before snow flies late next autumn. The Grand Prize company is making belated endeavors toward getting the mine in shape for an early resumption of the work, and nobody for an instant doubts that the new shaft will develop a rich bonanza in the "Old Reliable," but it takes time to erect heavy machinery, to build the necessary houses and to blast the rocks to a great depth, as you of the Comstock are fully aware, and, in my opinion, the Prize will not be ready to resume the shipment of bullion before next October. The Independence is doing nobly and still keeps life and hope in the camp, but there has been such persistent and disgraceful "shenanigans" in the management of many of our leading mines, that people at a distance have set the entire district down as a worthless wildcat. The Navajo has been, and is now, the black sheep of the camp, and it is worse than useless to try to convince Eastern capitalists that every claim in the district is not "sugared with the same stick."

There is a fixed belief in the minds of the people here that the best mines in Tuscarora and Cornucopia are being manipulated by a well-known ring of San Francisco bears, and there is not the ghost of a chance for any outsider to realize a dime upon either stock purchase or dividends. I am firmly of the opinion myself, and I sincerely hope that none of my friends will hazard a dollar here unless they can get on the inside or hang the swindling wretches who have ruined the prosperity of this splendid mining country. Business of every kind is dreadfully dull at Tuscarora. Many men are here out of employment and out of money, and I warn those who intend coming here not to do so till late next autumn.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

The changes in Currency for this week is only noticeable in the fall of gold from 101 3/4 to 100 3/4.

The outside mines are coming more prominently to the front. The Comstock mines are quoted, on the whole, lower than last week. This fall is noticeable particularly in the bonanza stock. California yesterday reached $15, and to day it only raised 12 1/2 cents, and it is thought that the next dividend will be but $1 per share. Trade in the San Francisco market is quite dull and but few articles are firm. Flour is quiet, and has fallen 25 cents on the barrel; Wheat is dull; Hay has fallen, and still heavy supplies are being thrown on the market; Butter has fallen for the same reason; Hides will probably drop on account of the surplusage of leather in the San Francisco and Eastern markets; Eggs and Potatoes have advanced and are in demand; Beef holds its own, but Mutton and Pork have each fallen.

In the home market Wheat, Barley and Oats have fallen with the San Francisco market. A partial supply of grain is also coming in from the north. Considerable Wool is also being shipped through here from Surprise Valley—consignee, Custer & Bonner. Butter has declined 5 cents, and the market drags. It would be advisable for the farmers to pack their butter, that is, the greater part, and turn it into the market next Fall. There is little or no Trout in market. The Wool crop is very light, and gives no immediate prospect of becoming much better.

CONSUMPTION

Positively Cured.
All sufferers from this disease that are anxious to be cured should try Dr. Kisser's Celebrated Consumptive Powders. These Powders are the only preparation known that will cure Consumption and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs—indeed, so strong is our faith in them, and also to convince you that they are no humbug, we will forward to every sufferer, by mail, post paid, a free Trial Box.
We don't want your money until you are perfectly satisfied of their curative power. If your life is worth saving, don't delay in giving these Powders a trial, as they will surely cure you.
Price, for large box, $3.00, sent to any part of the United States or Canada, by mail, on receipt of price.

Should do their Trading at the Mechanics' Store!

Because we can and do

UNDERS L ANY HOUSE ON THE PACIFIC COAST!

We Have But One Price.

We place the poorest judge of goods on the same level as the closest and sharpest buyer. We carry the largest stock of goods of any store in Sacramento. Customers can find a full line of the following goods:

SILK DRESS GOODS, CALICOES,

Muslins, Sheetings, Towels, Hosiery,

LADIES' FANCY GOODS.

Fine Dress Suits, Business Suits, Working Suits, full line of Hats, Boys Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Overshirts, Undershirts, White Shirts, Handkerchiefs, Fine Cassimere Dress Pants, Overalls, Blankets, Trunks, Working Pants, Cutlery, Hunting Coats, Valises, Umbrellas, etc.

REMEMBER, our store is nearly a quarter of a block in extent, and is heavily stocked with goods from floor to ceiling. We fill orders to any part of California, Nevada, Idaho, Washington Territory, and Utah. Samples of dry goods sent to any address free. By our system of doing business, a person ordering goods 500 miles away receives as much for the money as a person coming to our store. We publish a Price list and Story 1 per which we mail free to any address. An order for 25 cents worth of goods will be filled with as much care as one of hundreds of dollars.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup!

HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THIS DISCOVERY

Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy."

One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power. This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs which depend for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker suffering first.

The inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation contained so potent and direct effect upon the nervous system as his and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from those maladies.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—
Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhea,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholy,
Nervous Debility.

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other low fevers, Diphtheritic Prostration, Hysteria, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Sluggishness of the Liver, interrupted and feeble Action of the Heart, Suppurating Pustules caused by mucous obstruction of the Lungs and Air Passages leading thereto, and Debility from various causes. Indigestion and habitual Constipation almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine. Weakness of the Joints and Muscles. Incurability of the Blood, and Inward Wasting may be cured by attention to the regular described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites

The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the large sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.
This syrup will cure FETTERED CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life in the third. It will cure ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LARYNGITIS and COUGHS. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.

Sold by all Druggists.

Price $1 50 per bottle or six bottles for $7 50.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Private Medical Institute.

209, KEARNEY STREET, SAN FRANCISCO. Established in 1854.
For the Permanent Cure of all Special and Chronic Diseases, as also all Female Complaints and Diseases of the Nervous System.

THE IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF human life annually from secret and chronic diseases, caused this old and reliable institution to be established, first in Philadelphia, Penn., in 1850, and afterwards in San Francisco, Cal., in 1854, as a private medical institute, in order to afford the afflicted the best medical and surgical treatment for the above and all other affections and complaints. Consultation at the Institute, or by letter, FREE.

To the Afflicted:

Dr. L. J. Czapkay would most respectfully inform the public of the Pacific coast that, at the earnest solicitation of his numerous friends, and hundreds of those unfortunately afflicted with disease, he has reopened his MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE and resumed the practice of his profession. The Doctor would remind all those who are in need of medical aid, that since relinquishing his very extensive and successful practice in San Francisco, he has visited the principal cities in Europe, inspecting diligently the experience of the most learned in the profession, the benefit from which he offers to all in need of his services. Rheumatic affections, chronic catarrh, diseases of the stomach and kidneys, liver complaints, etc., successfully treated. Those who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, physical and mental debility, are assured of a permanent cure. Charges moderate. All communication strictly confidential. Medical cures sent by express. Address:
L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., 9-3 d & wly 209 Kearney st., San Francisco.

SACRAMENTO AS A TRADE CENTER.

The business men of Sacramento, as well as all her people, have now the firmest confidence in her future greatness. She has withstood the greatest flood on record in this valley, and has demonstrated beyond a question that with the careful measures being adopted for the perpetuity of her system of levees, she is forever safe from the ravages of the waters.

How and Why She can Supply

Goods of Every Description

Cheaper than They can be Bought in San Francisco.

We answer—because she has advantages possessed by no other locality—saving in freight charges, no wharf rates, low rents and light expenses. Her merchants buy direct from the large manufacturing centers of the East and have the goods shipped by rail to their doors.

Her manufactures are extensive and varied, including carriages and wagons, machinery, brass work, pumps and tubs, boxes, brooms and brushes, plows, harness, cloths, gloves, con-
